“Tell the Next Generation”

“Tell the next generation that this is God, our God forever and ever. He will guide us forever.”

(Psalm 48:13-14)

Introduction

*“Walk about Zion, go around her, number her towers, consider well her ramparts, go through her citadels, that you may tell the next generation that this is God, our God forever and ever. He will guide us forever.”
(Psalm 48:12-13)*

A tower is a tall structure, taller than it is wide, often by a significant factor. Towers are distinguished from masts by their lack of guy-wires and are therefore, along with tall buildings, self-supporting structures. Wikipedia

In fortification architecture, a rampart is a length of bank or wall forming part of the defensive boundary of a castle, hillfort, settlement or other fortified site. It is usually broad-topped and made of excavated earth and/or masonry. Wikipedia

A citadel is the core fortified area of a town or city. It may be a castle, fortress, or fortified center. The term is a diminutive of "city", meaning "little city", because it is a smaller part of the city of which it is the defensive core. Ancient Sparta had a citadel, as did many other Greek cities and towns. Wikipedia

“Tell the next generation that this is God, our God forever and ever. He will guide us
forever.”

(Psalm 48:13-14)

“Tell the next generation...”

I. This is our God!

“For the Lord your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.”
(Deuteronomy 4:24)

“Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap.” (Galatians 6:7)

“Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love.” (1 John 4:8)

“Tell the next generation...”

II. This is our God forever and ever!

“Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.
Do not be led away by diverse and strange teachings,” (Hebrews 13:8-9a)

“Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever.” (Psalm 136:1)

“Tell the next generation...”

III. He will guide us forever!

“But the word of the Lord remains forever.’ And this word is the good news that was preached to you.” (1 Peter 1:25)

“And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever.” (1 John 2:17)

Conclusion:

What hast thou done?

“He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words,
hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.”

(John 12:48)

→ Tell the next generation to have life!

→ Tell the next generation to have love!

→ Tell the next generation to have liberty!

- ◆ “Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.” (Galatians 5:1)
- ◆ “For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.” (Romans 8:2)
- ◆ “Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.” (Romans 6:18)
